1.4 Grounds and principles for processing PD by the Operator

1.4.1 The Operator is a Russian legal entity that operates in the territory of the Russian Federation. The Operator's activities on the Website are aimed at Russian users, citizens of the Russian Federation or persons residing in the territory of the Russian Federation, and are not aimed at making a profit or conducting other activities outside the territory of the Russian Federation, therefore the Operator is guided by:

- The Constitution of the Russian Federation;
- Federal Law No. 152-FZ "On Personal Data" (hereinafter – 152-FZ);
- The Civil Code of the Russian Federation;
- other laws and by-laws governing the processing of PD in the Russian Federation.

1.4.2 The Operator's activities are based on the following principles:

- legality and fairness of personal data processing;
- limitation of personal data processing to achieving specific, predetermined and legitimate purposes;
- prohibition of personal data processing incompatible with the purposes of personal data collection;
- inadmissibility of combining databases containing personal data, the processing of which is carried out for purposes incompatible with each other;
- compliance of the content and scope of personal data processed with the purposes predetermined and declared during personal data collection;
- inadmissibility of processing personal data being excessive in relation to the purposes declared during personal data collection;

- ensuring the personal data accuracy, sufficiency, and, where necessary, relevance in relation to the purposes of processing, by taking the necessary measures to delete or clarify incomplete or inaccurate data;
- organizing the storage of personal data in a form that allows identifying the personal data subject, no longer than required by the purposes of processing personal data, unless the storage period of personal data is established by federal law, an agreement to which the personal data subject is a party, beneficiary or guarantor;
- destroying personal data (upon achieving the purposes of personal data processing or in case of loss of the need to achieve these purposes, unless otherwise provided by the legislation of the Russian Federation).

2.2 Processing of cookies by the Operator

2.2.1 The Operator may use cookies received from the devices of Website visitors in order to ensure the functioning of the Website, including:

- strictly necessary cookies – to maintain the correct operation and display of the Website. These cookies do not store personal data that may identify a Website user as an individual;
- statistical (analytical) cookies that are used to collect statistical information on the work with the Website, including the total number of visitors and bounce rates – to improve the user experience in terms of navigation and error correction.

2.2.2 The Operator uses the information contained in the cookies only for the above purposes, after which the collected data continues to be stored on the device of the Website visitor for a period that may depend on the relevant type of cookie.

2.2.3. Regarding the processing time, cookies are divided into the following types:

- session cookies – remain active while the web browser through which the user accessed the Website remains open and are deleted when it is closed;
- persistent cookies – are stored on the computer of the Website visitor and are not deleted when the browser is closed. In most cases, the period of use of such cookies does not exceed two years.

2.2.4. The Operator uses the Yandex.Metrica web analytics service on the Website to analyze user activity using cookies, evaluate the use of the Website by Users, and improve the Website. Cookies may be obtained by the Operator using the Yandex.Metrica metric program. When using the said web analytics service, the Company, for its part, accepts the terms of use of the service posted on the service provider's Website, as well as the methods of protecting the transmitted information used by the provider. The Company makes sure that the principles and rules for processing personal data are observed, the confidentiality of PD is maintained, and the necessary measures are taken to ensure the security of personal data in accordance with Federal Law 152 as part of the internal control (audit) of the compliance of processing and protection of PD processed in the Company with the requirements of the applicable legislation of the Russian Federation.

Website visitors are notified of the use of metric programs and the collection of cookies when they go to the Website. Most web browsers are initially configured to automatically accept cookies. A Website visitor may change the settings of their web browser at any time to block the use of cookies on their device.
